

V·O·L·U·S·I·A DINING G·U·I·D·E

Vol. II Issue IV 2007 VOLUSIA COUNTY DINING & ENTERTAINMENT MAGAZINE

The Gyrille
at riverview

“ONE CANNOT THINK WELL, LOVE WELL, SLEEP WELL, IF ONE HAS NOT DINED WELL.”
VIRGINIA WOOLF

THE GRILLE AT RIVERVIEW

101 Flagler Ave. • New Smyrna Beach • 386-428-1865

New Smyrna Beach is home to a number of restaurants noted for their atmosphere or for a single signature dish, but only one area restaurant offers the entire package... superior service in casually elegant surroundings, spectacular sunset views over the river and, simply great food. That restaurant is The Grille at Riverview.

Nestled away between the charming Riverview Hotel and the Flagler Avenue Bridge, The Grille at Riverview is fast becoming the talk of the town, and with good reason. The dynamic father-son team of Roby and Beau Robertson have put an emphasis on taste for New Smyrna's new Dining hot spot.

"We Built a menu we believe truly delivers for our guests," noted Roby Robertson, a man whose vast restaurant experience has taken him to the far corners of the world. Having worked throughout southeast Asia and Australia, and having opened restaurants in Honolulu, as well as Los Angeles and San Francisco, Robertson has a proven track record- including Esquire Magazine naming his Denver "Strings" restaurant concept as one of the Best New Restaurants in America. Robertson's background in both fine dining and casual-upscale restaurant development is as diverse as the many places he has traveled throughout his career.

Beau Robertson is no newcomer to the industry either. Having managed nightclubs, sports bars and fine dining restaurants in and around the Denver area, the younger Robertson plans to bring new concepts for The Grille at Riverview's lounge and it's entertainment schedule. "The atmosphere we've created is comfortable and Welcoming", Beau added, "but there's also a definite energy here, it's what keeps our customers coming back"

The Grille at Riverview offers live entertainment every Friday (7:00 to 11:00) and Saturday (7:30 to 11:30) on the Key West Deck and Sunset Bar/ Lounge. Guests can enjoy a great dinner or just sip cocktails while enjoying the Riverview ambience and music.

With the Grille at Riverview, Roby and Beau have created a restaurant and lounge that is both casually comfortable and unpretentious, while offering superior service and quality food preparation expected of a fine dining establishment.

Judging by the response of guests, their plan is working well. So much so that The Grille at Riverview is one of the only restaurants in New Smyrna Beach that is open for lunch and dinner seven days a week, including an ala carte Sunday Brunch.

In addition to offering an array of fresh seafood and hand cut steaks, The Grille at Riverview presents possibly the area's finest Rack of Lamb (as seen on this month's cover) and an Escargot appetizer that rivals any you may have tasted. An expansive wine list and full bar also helps make for a great dining experience... as perfect for a casual Tuesday night dinner with friends as it is for a special celebration.

Reservations are suggested. Call 386-428-1865